Access Point:

Campaign Creek Reavis Ranch Loop: See Carlson and Stewart and Grubbs for access directions.

Rogers Trough Trailhead: To reach Rogers Trough trailhead from the Phoenix area, follow US60 east past Florence Junction. Two miles east of Florence Junction, turn north on the paved Queen Valley road, drive approximately a mile and then turn right on FR357 and cross the railroad tracks. Follow FR357 about 2.5 miles to miles to FR172 (Hewitt Canyon Road). Turn north and follow FR172 for approximately 8 miles to primitive road FR172A. This difficult three-mile-long 4WD road leads to Rogers Trough trailhead. (FR650 is not recommended for access.)

Water: Seasonal water available at Reavis Saddle Spring and in Pine Creek. Water is generally available in Reavis Creek. Carlson and Stewart and Grubbs also discuss water sources in the Campaign Creek drainage. Walnut Spring, which is about 1.5 miles beyond Pine Creek on the Arizona/Two Bar Ridge Trail, is fairly reliable. For up to date details on water sources please visit the Arizona Trail Water sources at <https://aztrail.org/explore/water-sources/> and even use the Arizona Trail App <https://aztrail.org/explore/maps/mobile-app/> which has user comments about the status of water sources.

Notes/Warnings: Carlson and Stewart say that horses are not recommended for either loop. Bikes are not allowed in the Superstition Wilderness. For specific turn by turn information on the Arizona Trail visit the Arizona Trail databook <https://aztrail.org/explore/databooks/> and even use the Arizona Trail App <https://aztrail.org/explore/maps/mobile-app/>
